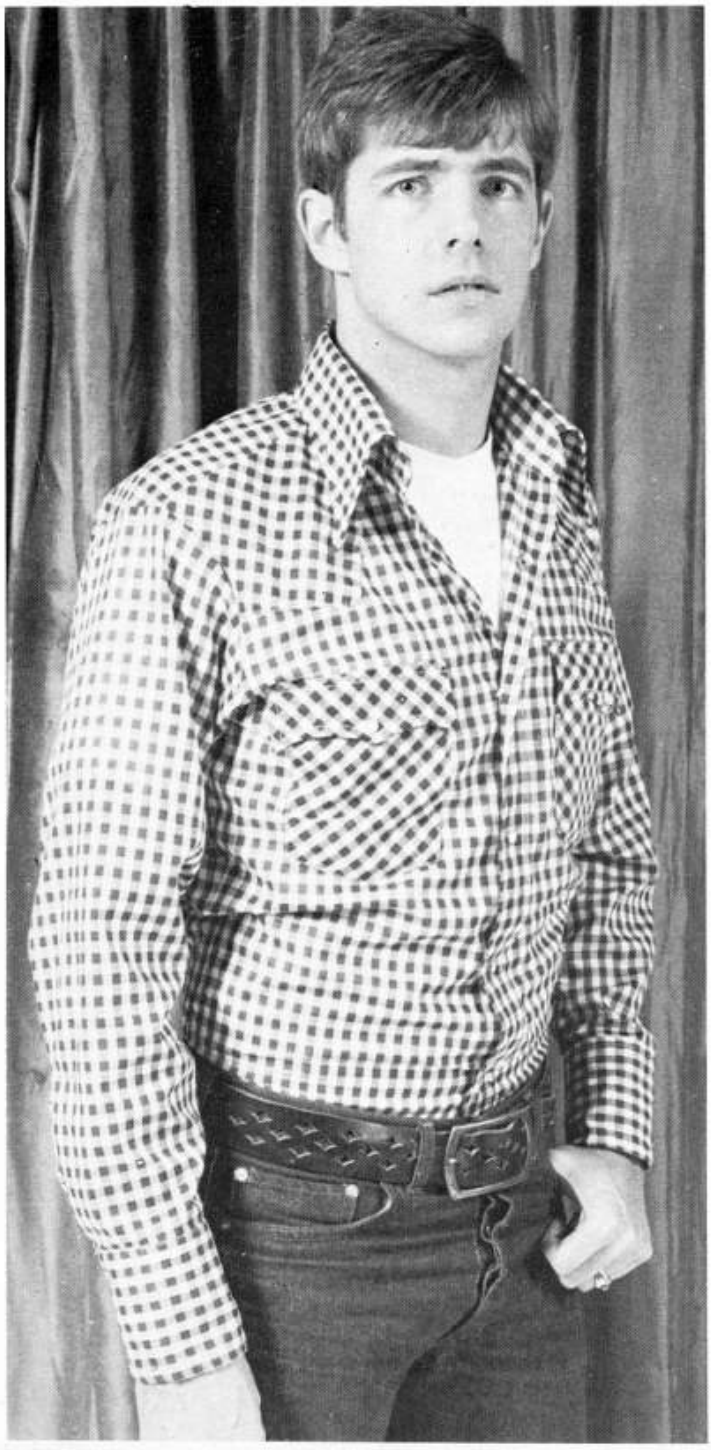
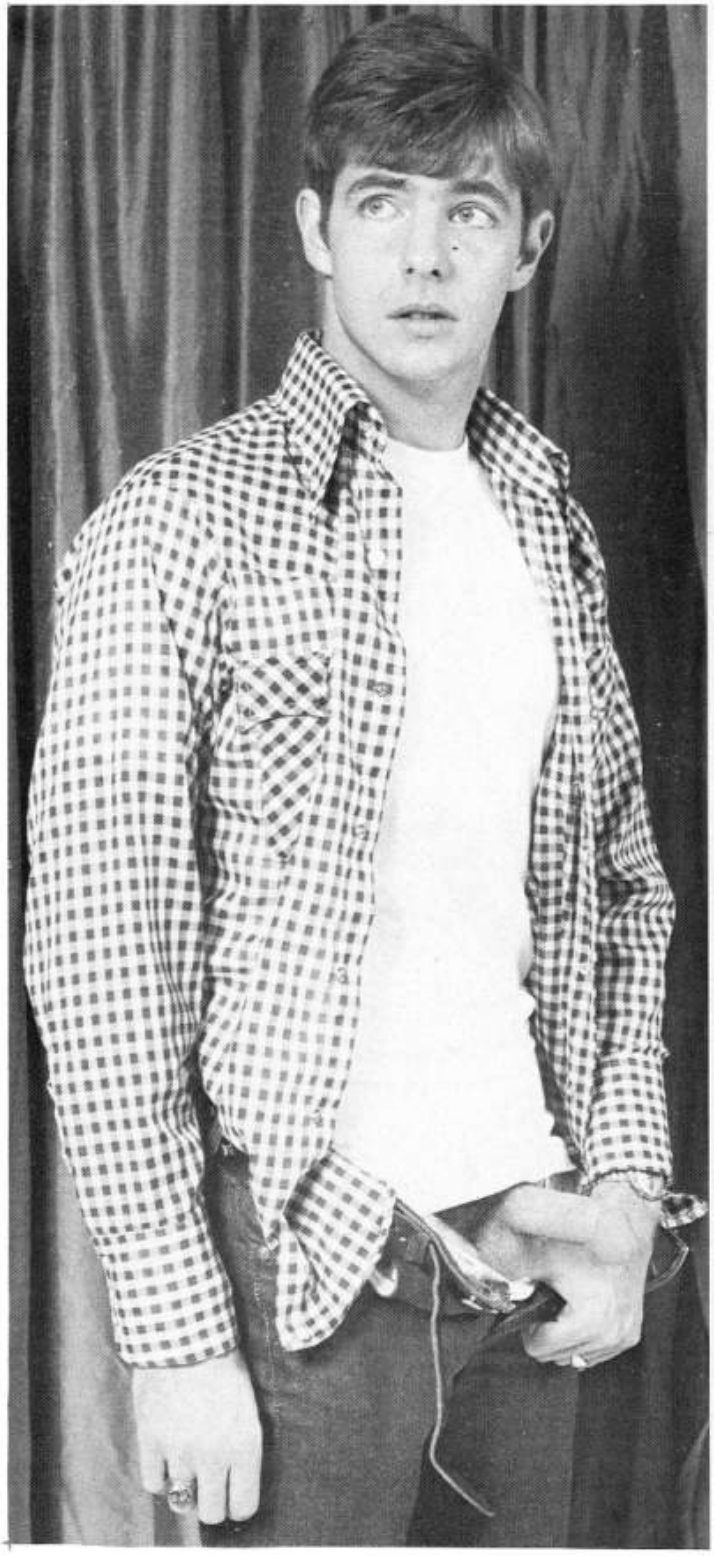
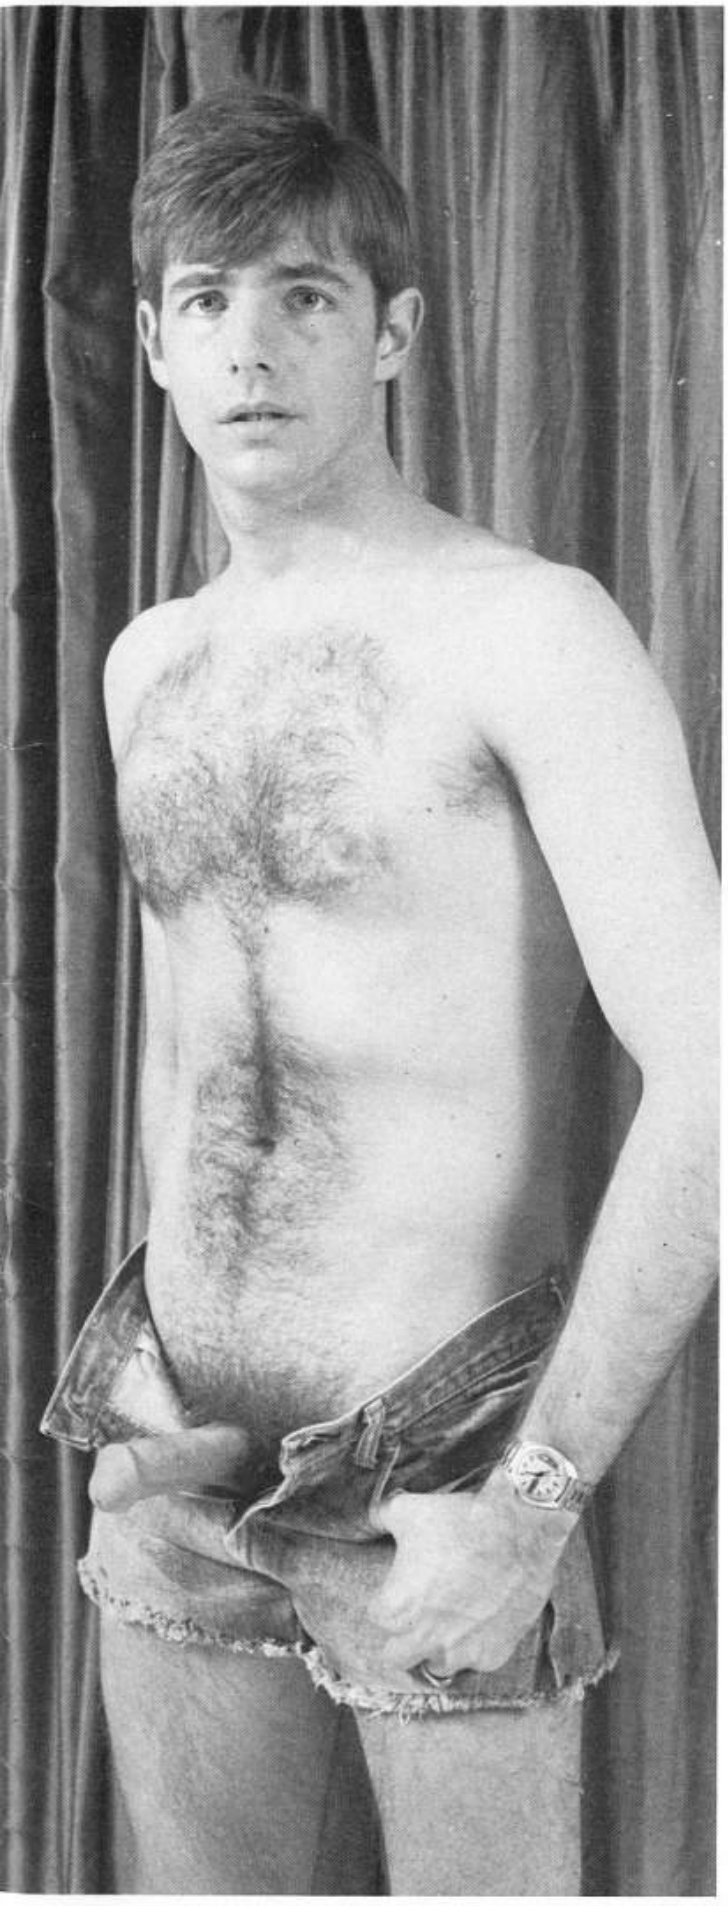
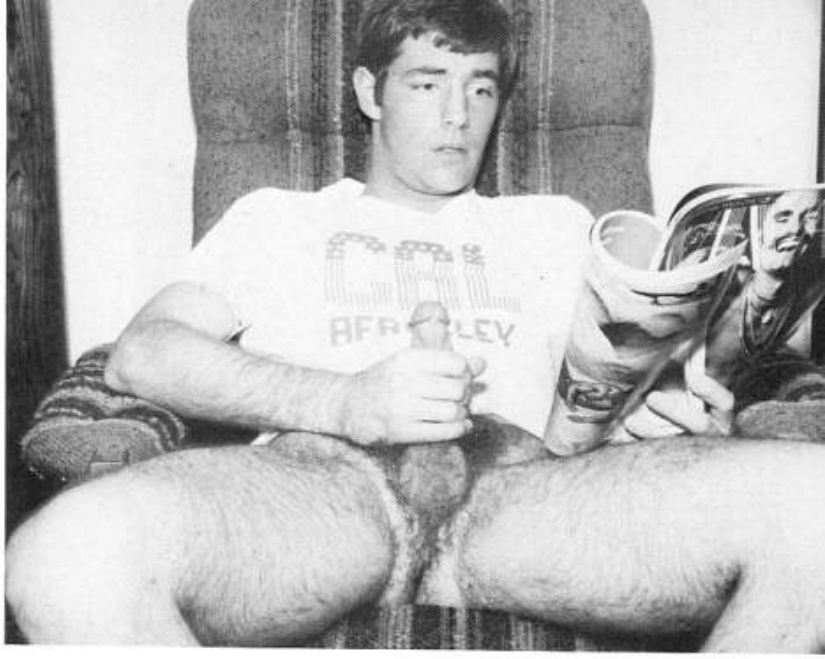
STEVE



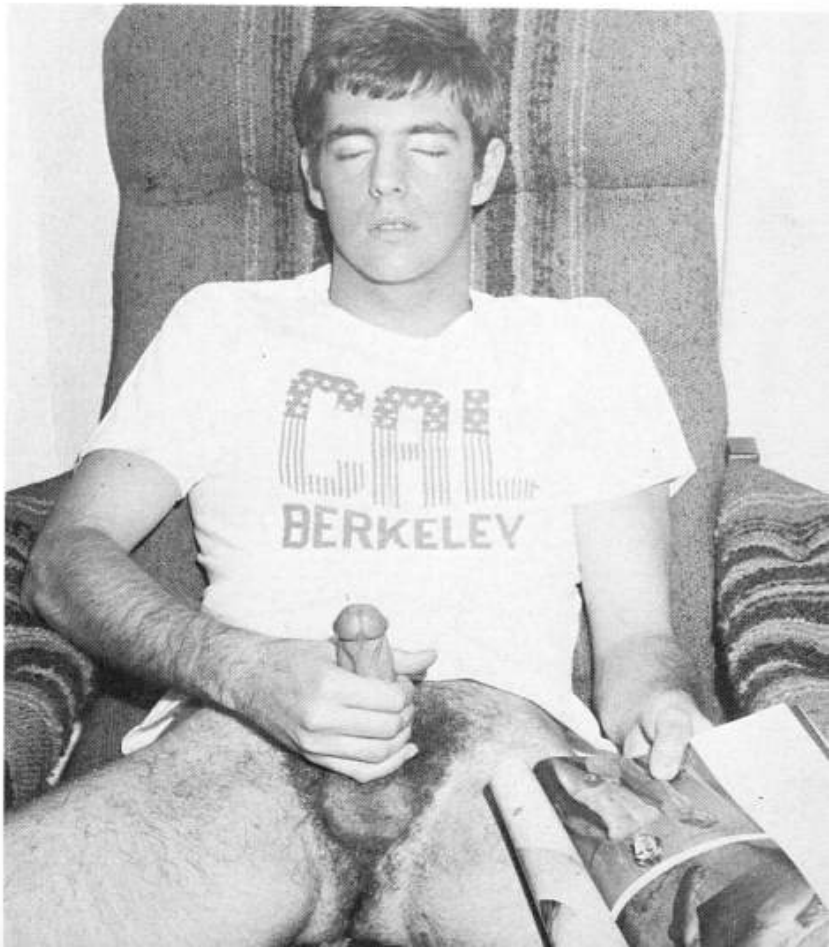


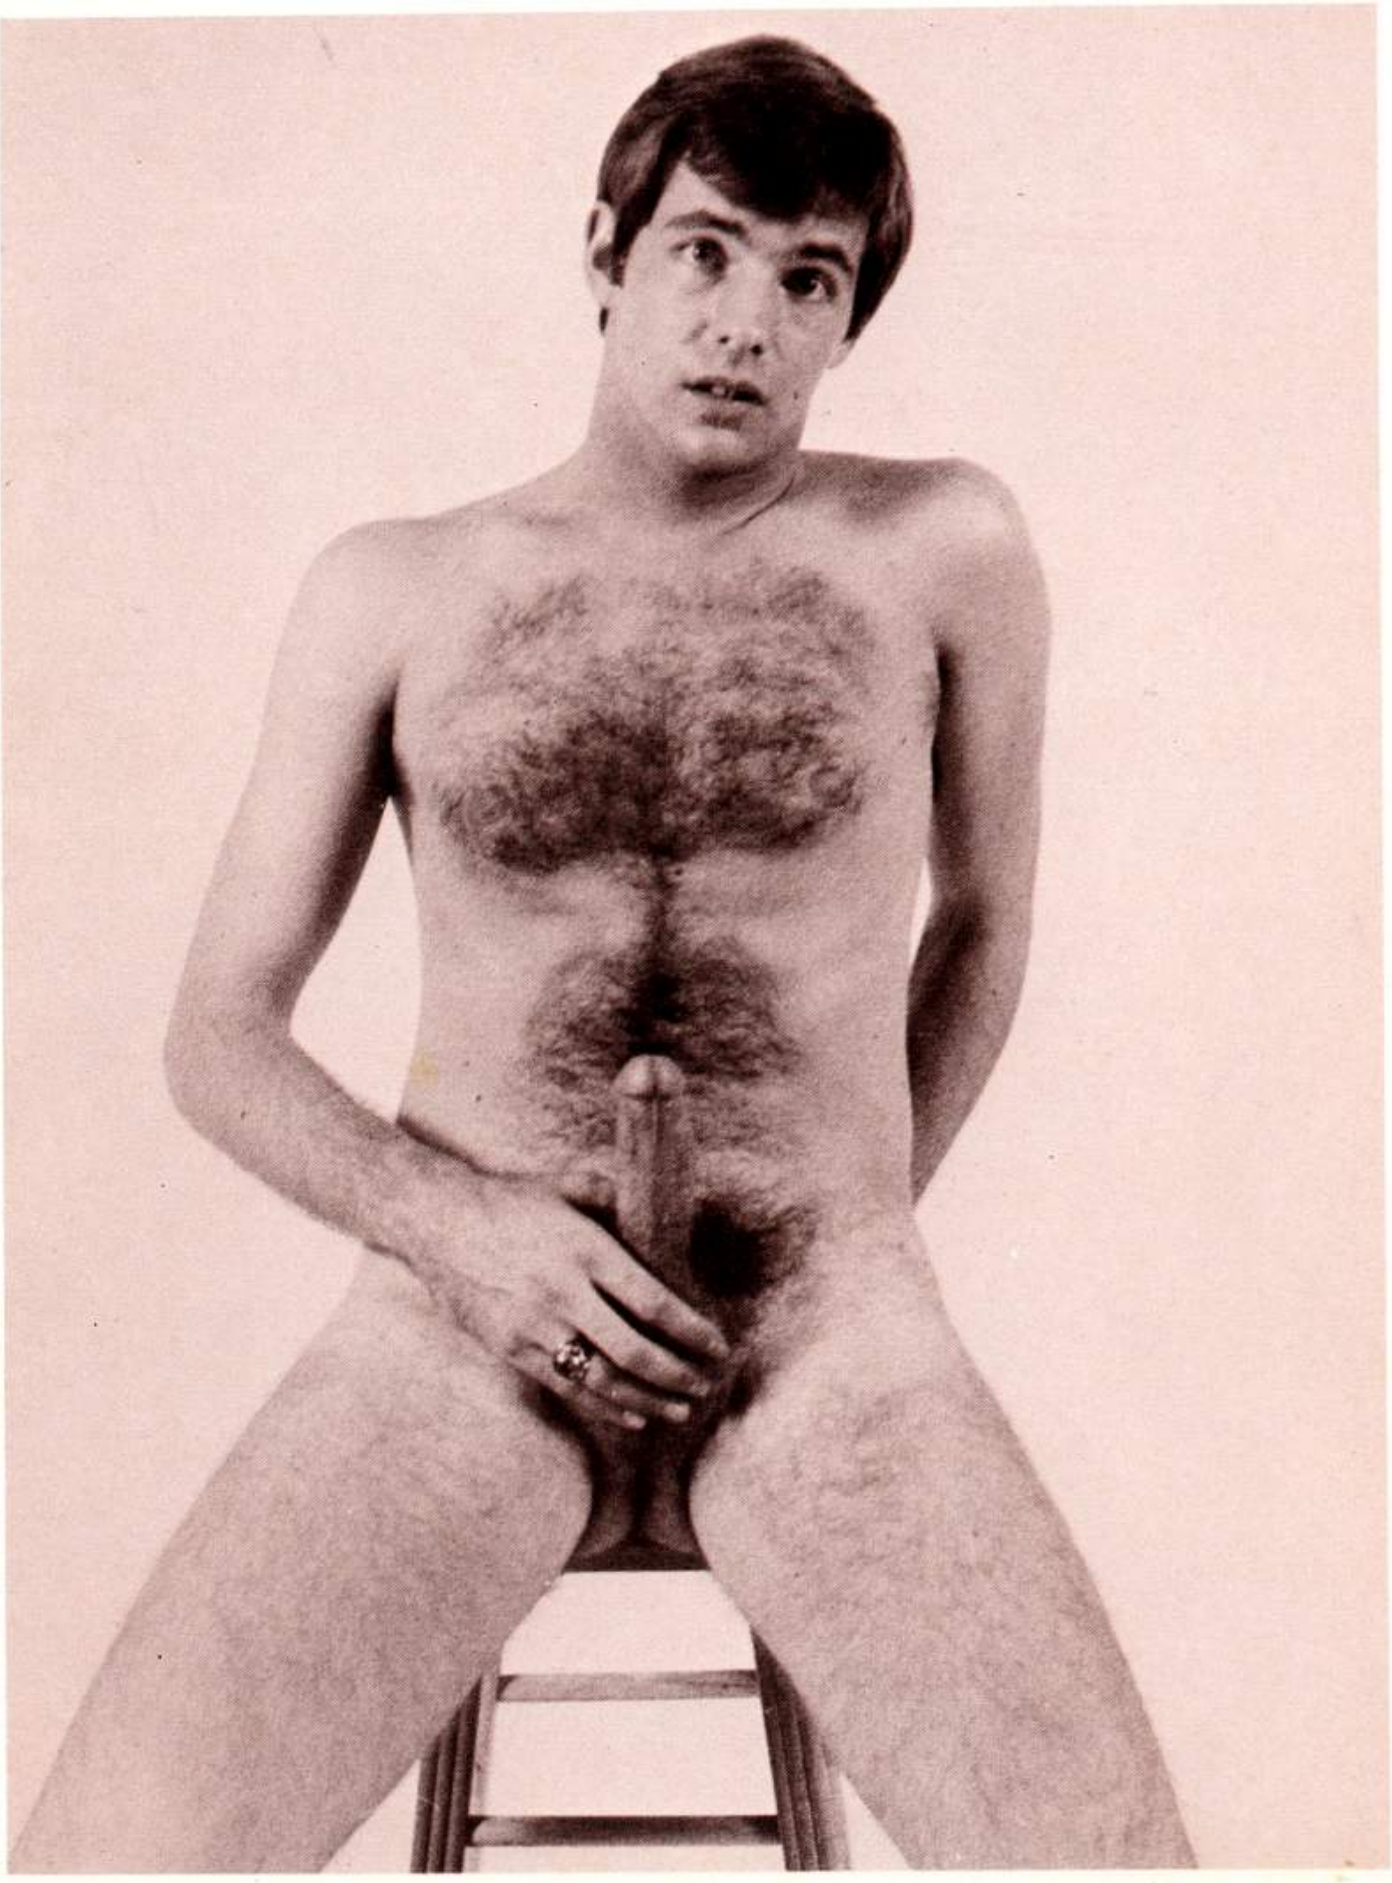


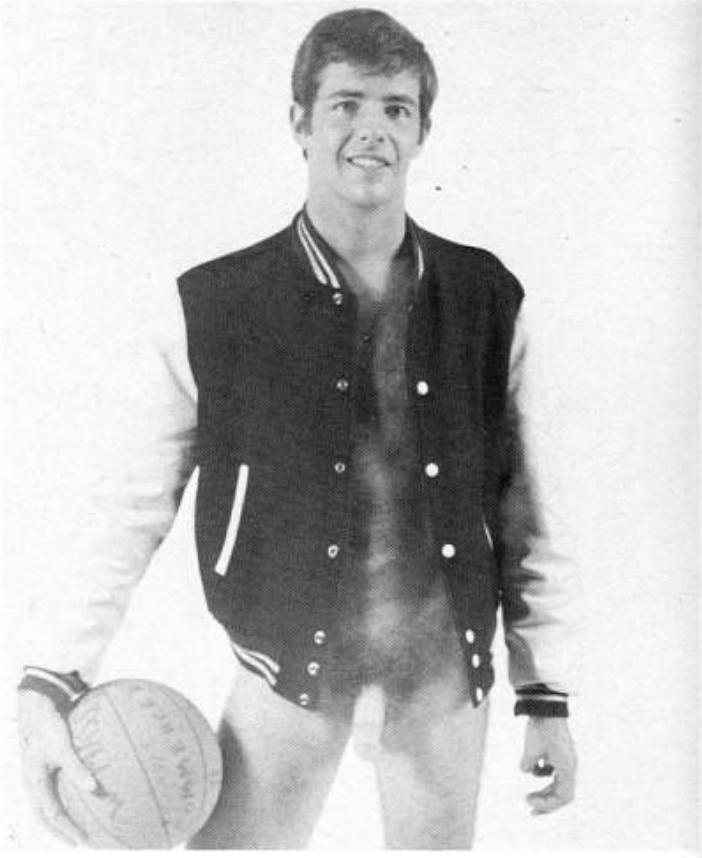


A contradiction in terms.

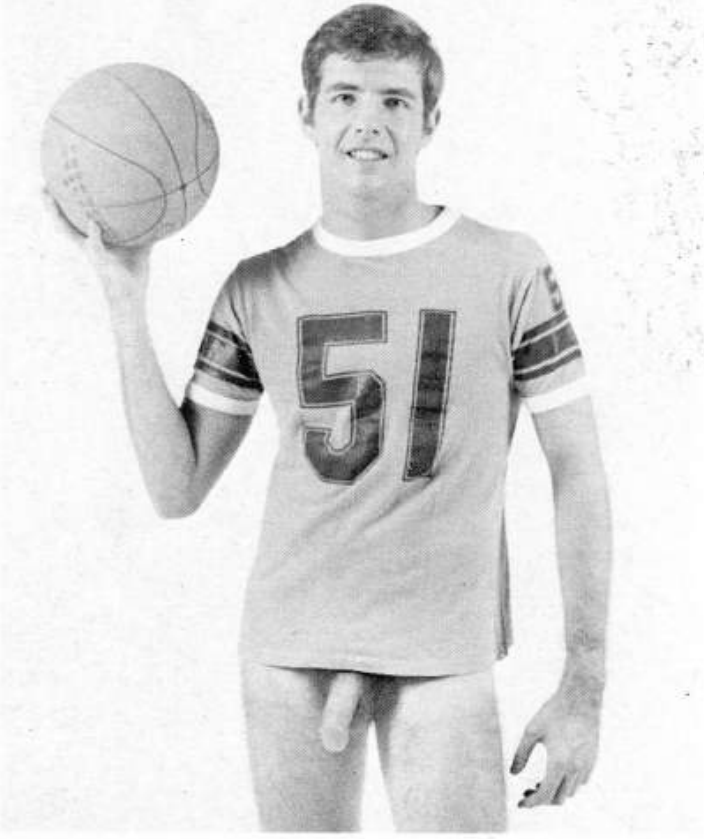
Neat and conservative but, still, very laid-back. Laid-back but up and ready when the camera was aimed at him. Up and ready but still very much at ease. One thing was always the same. He worked very hard to please . . . willing to try anything.

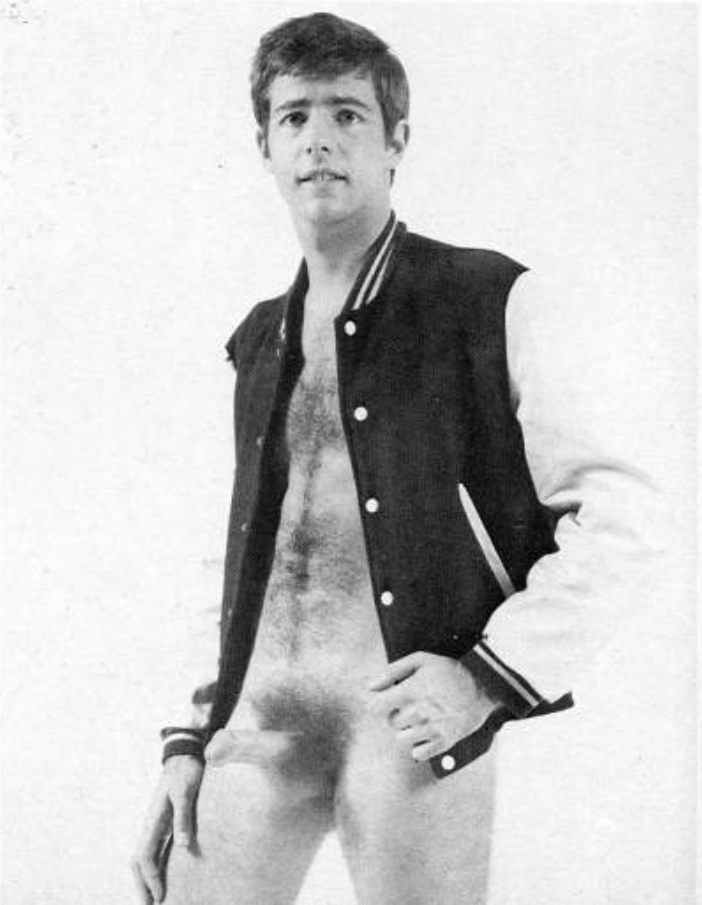


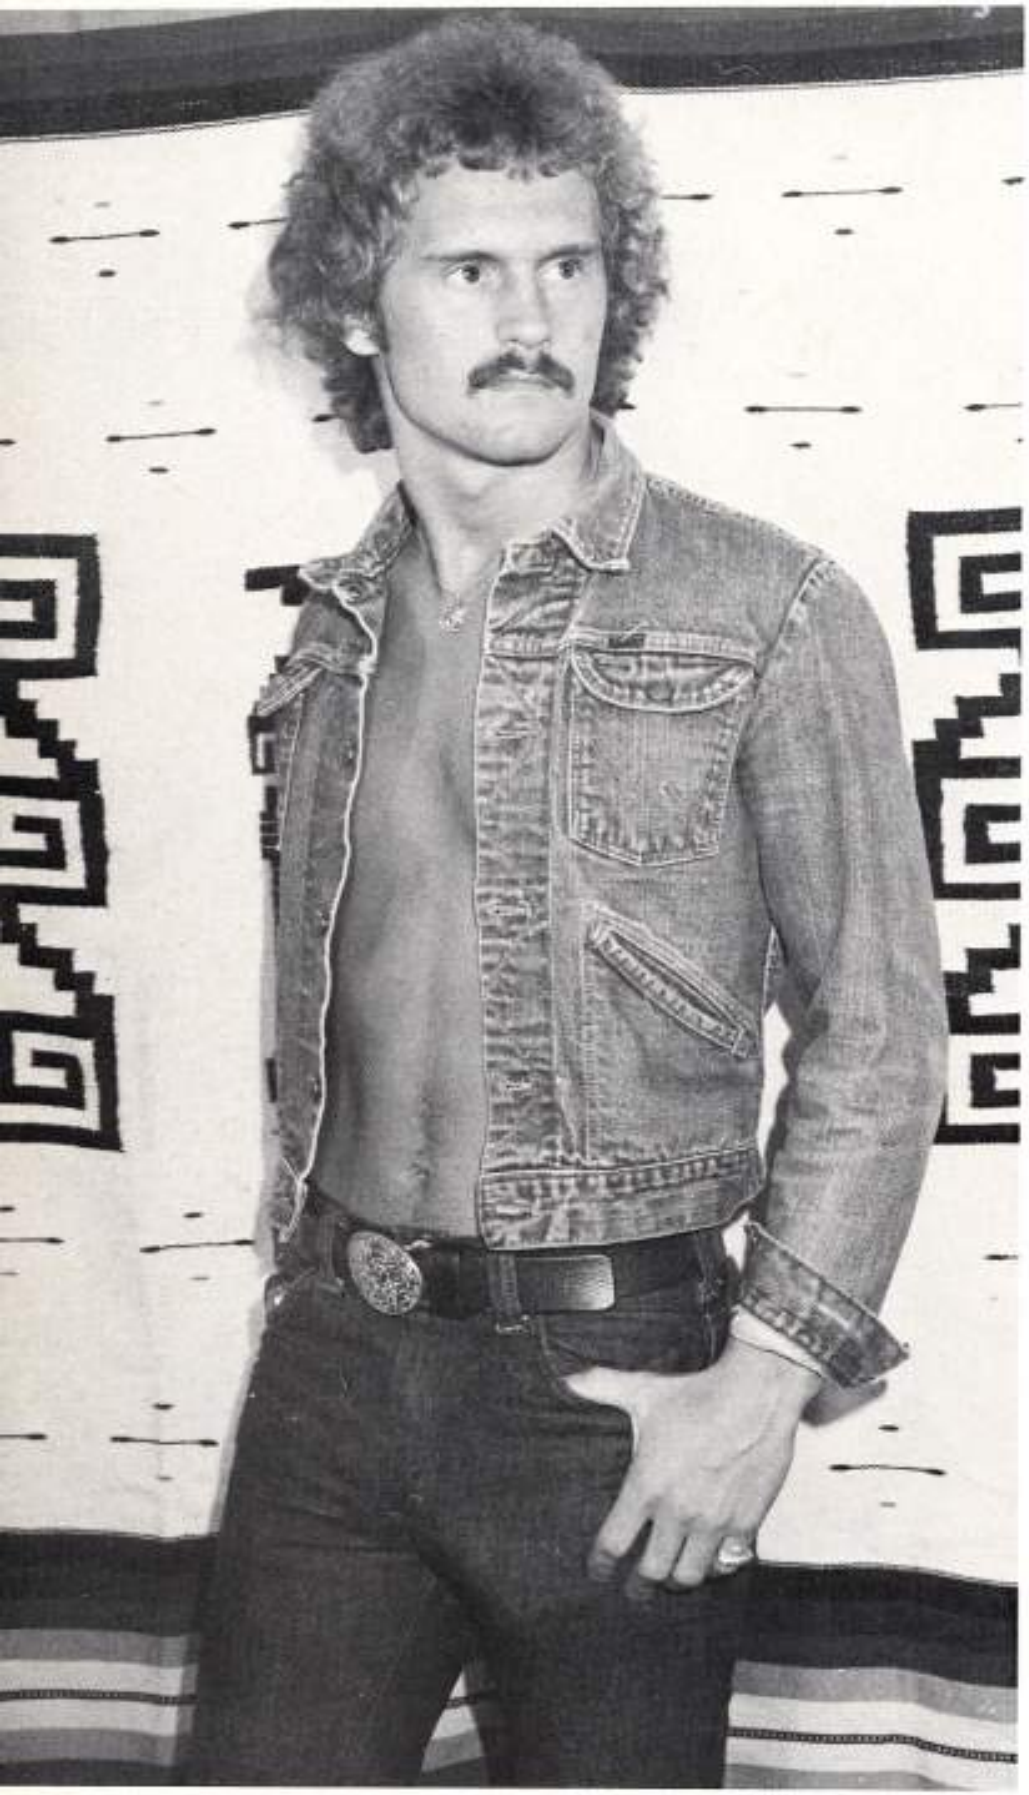




Yes, a contradiction. Trim, slim in build but with an athletic background . . . a college and high-school basketball star . . . this young guy sure knows his way around with a ball!



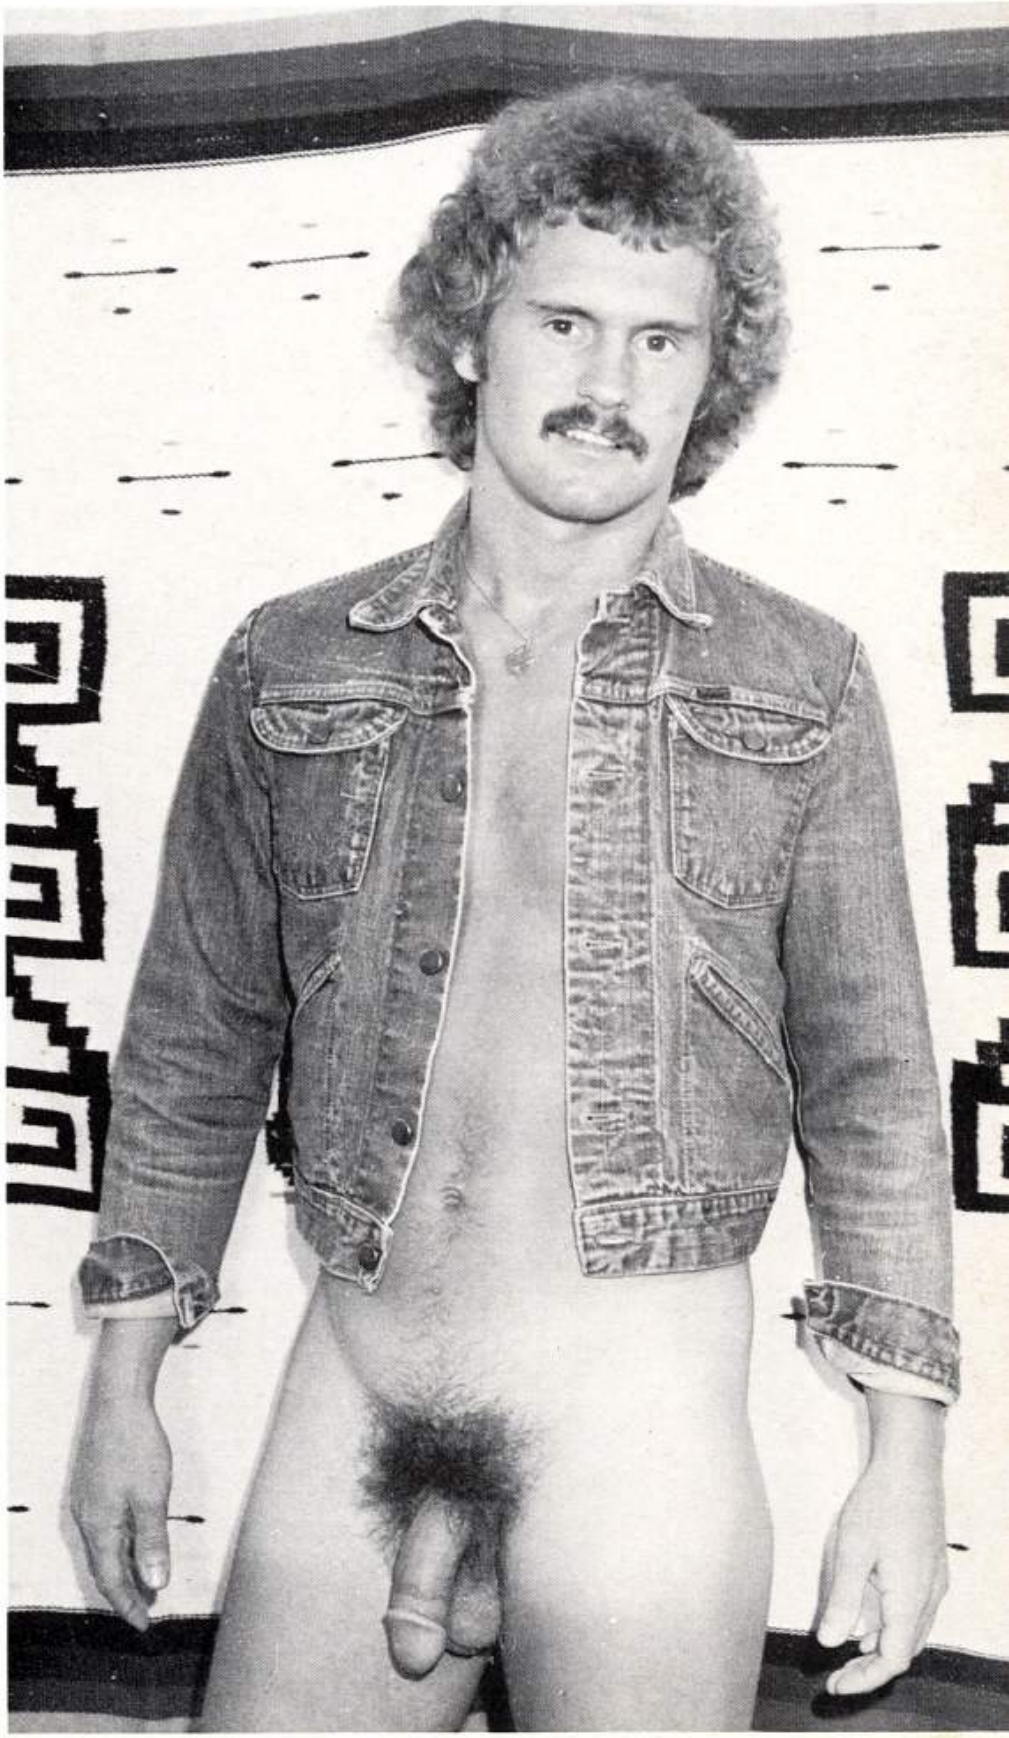


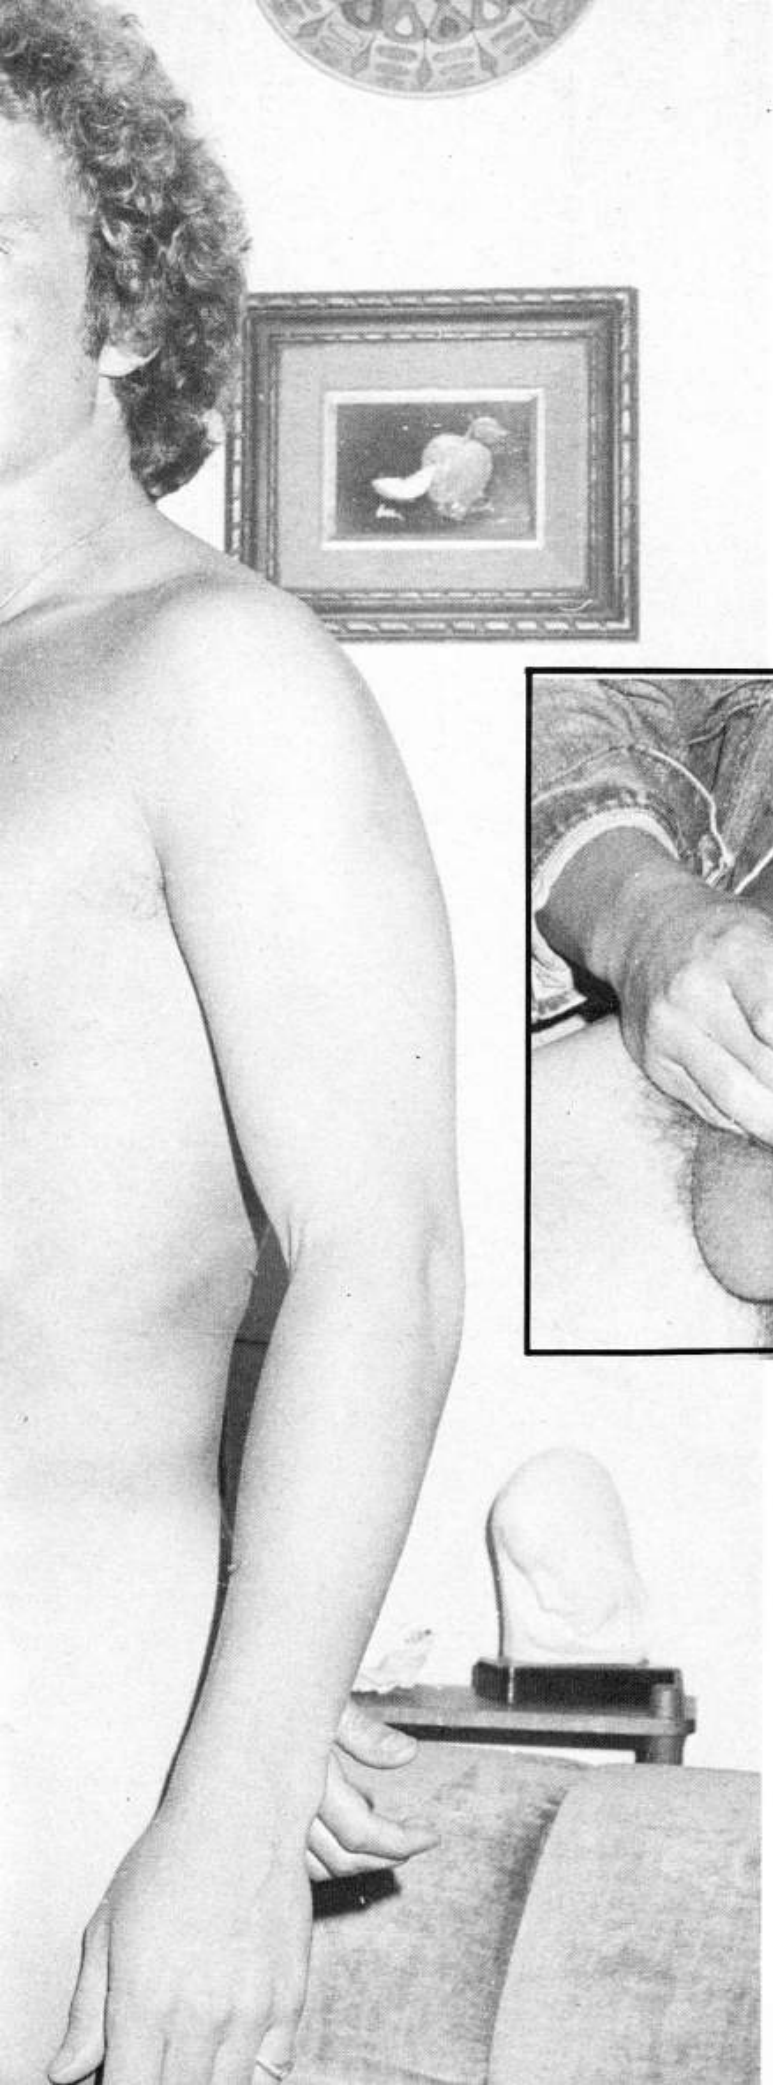


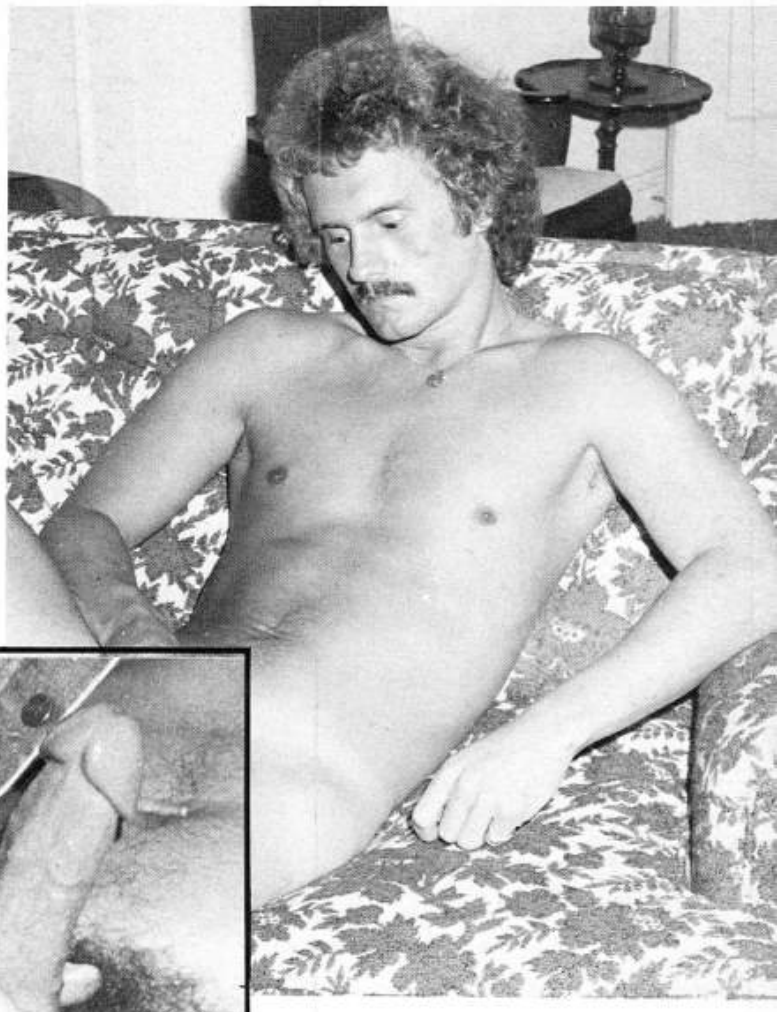
CHRIS

A perfect stranger.

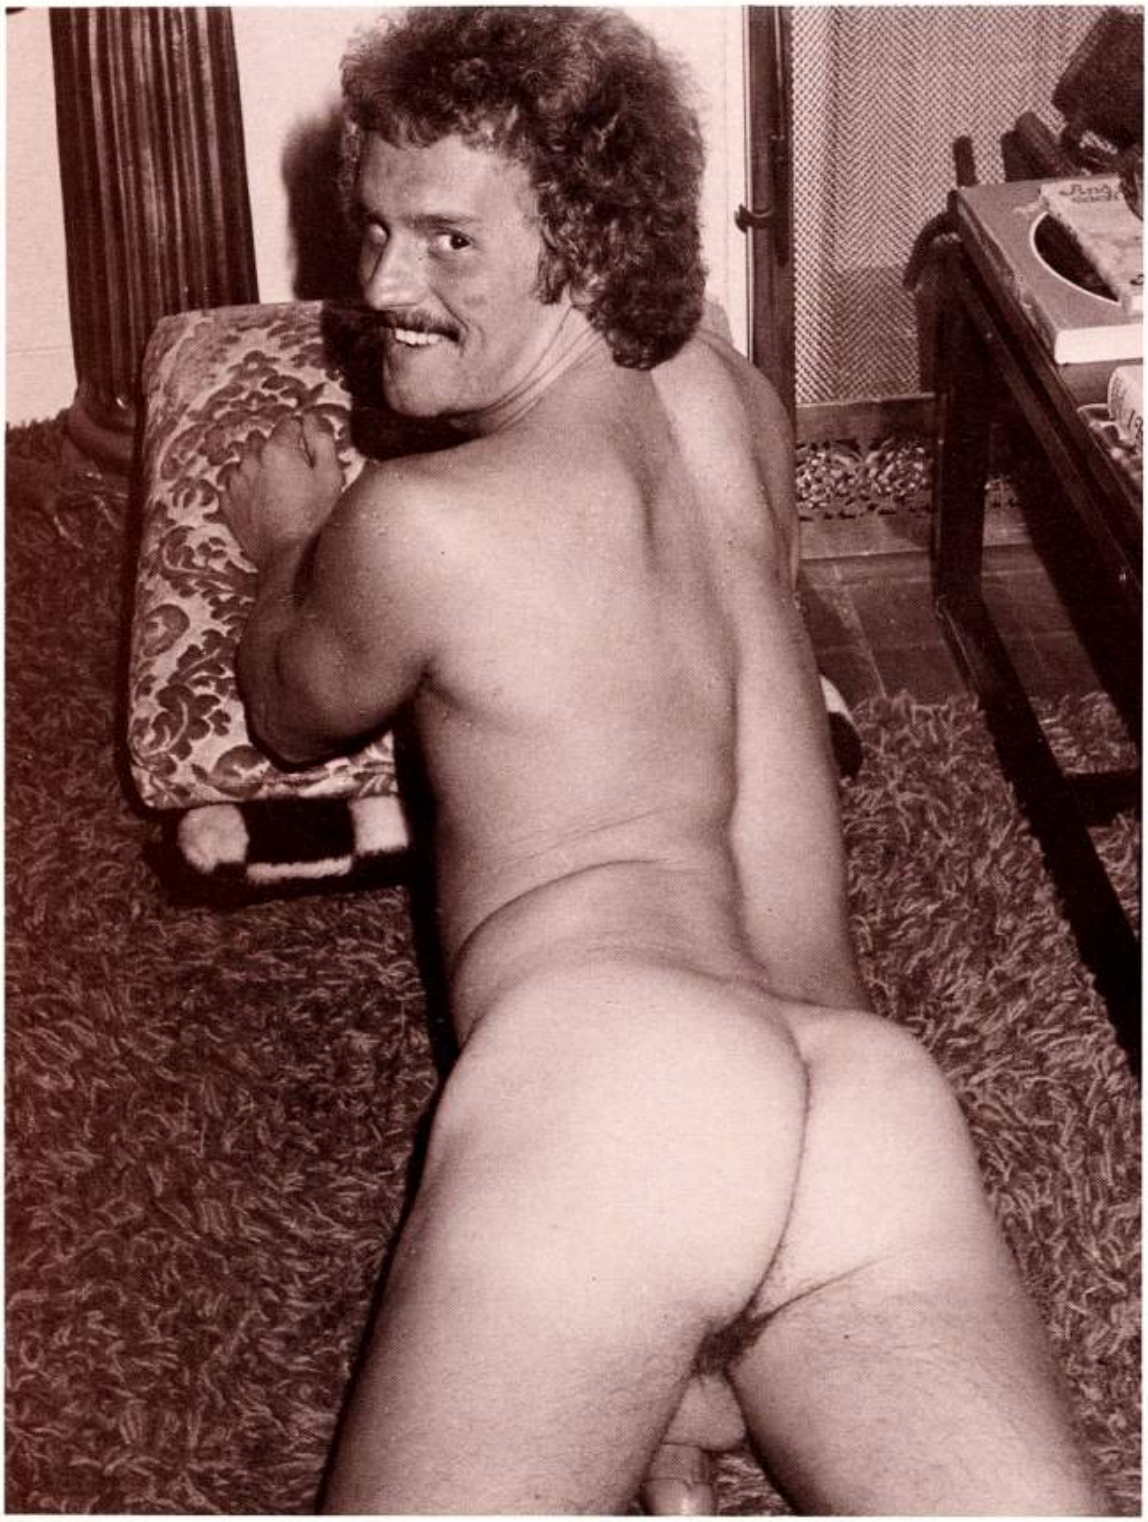
Even now, almost no more than a warm memory. . . . A rainy afternoon . . . a shared doorway . . . shelter from the downpour . . . a chance meeting . . . a few exchanged words. . . .







That moment turned into a whole shared afternoon . . . eager to please . . . more than happy . . . delighted to share his hard, young body with the camera. . . .



The warm memory still remains . . . the sharing . . . the rain . . . the doorway . . . the few words . . . and more . . . then . . . gone . . . never to be seen again. . . .
